

Miami — December 10, 2020 —

RealKnu Realty Inc. announced the launch of RealKnu App, available for use with iOS and Android mobile devices.

RealKnu dramatically changes the way the real estate business is conducted. This innovative mobile app enables consumers all over the world full control of when and how they want to view any home, commercial or rental property. It helps the potential buyer connect with the real estate agent who will better serve and take care of its needs, as the buyer starts navigating in a real estate market he/she may not be familiar with.

This easy to use and effective app is a game changer. You can connect and talk directly to the agent of your choice. Better: you can pick an agent who talks your own language, or who specializes in a particular neighborhood or construction style.

Buying or renting a home or a commercial property is one of the most important decision families and businesses alike make in their lifetime. Finding a property that is the right fit for your needs can be a painful and extremely time-consuming experience. RealKnu understands how valuable is everyone's time, so it created a groundbreaking app that will make this task quick and easy. RealKnu connects Realtors with consumers in real time. No longer does a consumer need to waste time tracking down the realtor involved with a desired property. This app does all the leg work.

Inquiring about a property is now as easy as downloading the RealKnu App and selecting the desired location. In a matter of seconds, realtors within five miles of that location are available to be contacted. RealKnu also allows the consumer the ability to communicate in their desired language. English, Spanish, French, Portuguese, Italian and Russian are currently available on the app., more languages will follow very soon. Consumers can also choose how they communicate with the Realtor. SPECIFY. CHE VUOL DIRE?

“Consumers today are very tech savvy. They want to use technology to make their lives easier and accomplish their goals faster, including the complex process of buying or renting a home”, offers Giovanni Marzilli, the real estate veteran who has created RealKnu

The RealKnu app allows a buyer/renter the ability to connect with Licensed Real Estate Agents in their area in real time, using whatever communicating device they feel most comfortable with, by either calling them directly or via text message, email or social media apps.

Fully endorsed by the Miami Realtors Association, Real Knu has been test marketed in South Florida, and is now ready to launch and go live nationwide. RealKnu is working to make buying and selling of real estate simple, fast and easy. This newest creation is a win-win for consumers and realtors alike.
